

Senior Radiographer

Make a living as you make a life

Our team at Uniradiology Carlton certainly endorse a work / home life balance as the secret of their success at one of the most successful radiology practices in Melbourne.

The team are seeking to appoint a Senior CT/General Radiographer.

Utilising the latest cutting edge technology and applying A.L.A.R.A. principles day to day will ensure the highest diagnostic outcomes and patient satisfaction.

To be successful in this role you will have all necessary licences and registrations and the ability to manage your day between supervising technical staff, liaising with the Radiologist, performing regular CT and General Radiographer duties and with day to day contact with the Operations Manager

Why join us?

- Leading a small and professional team
- Excellent work / home life balance - no shift work and no weekend work
- Attractive remuneration package in the range of $80,000 to $85,000
